

EBS Install Base (CSI)

No.	Views	Description
1	CSI Instance Contacts	This view returns information about contacts associated with a party for an item instance. This information was supplied in the Party Contacts section on the Item Instance Details page of Oracle Install Base. A record is returned for each combination of a contact number, an item instance number, and a contact relationship type.
2	CSI Instance Parties	This view returns information about parties associated with item instances. This information was supplied in the Parties section on the Item Instance Details page of Oracle Install Base. A record is returned for each combination of a party number, a party relationship type, and an item instance number.
3	CSI Instance Party Accts	This view returns information about item instances and their relationships. This information was supplied in the Item Instance Configuration page of Oracle Install Base. A record is returned for each combination of an item instance number, a related item instance number, and a relationship name.
4	CSI Instance Relationships	This view returns information about repair orders associated with item instances. This information is displayed on the Repair Orders section on the Item Instance Details page of Install Base and the Repair Orders window of Depot Repair. A record is returned for each combination of an item instance number and a repair order number.
5	CSI Instance Repair Orders	This view returns information about item instances affected by sales orders. This information is displayed on the General Attributes section on the Item Instance Details page of Install Base and was supplied in the Order Information and Line Items tabs of the

No.	Views	Description
		Sales Order window of Order Management. A record is returned for each combination of an item instance number, a sales order number, an IntransitOrderFlag value, and a SalesOrderFlag value.
6	CSI Instance Sales Orders	This view returns information about service requests associated with item instances. This information is displayed on the Service Requests section on the Item Instance Details page of Install Base and was supplied in the Service Request window of TeleService. A record is returned for each combination of an item instance number and a service request number.
7	CSI Instances	This view returns information about item instances. This information was supplied in the Item Instance Details page of Oracle Install Base. A record is returned for each item instance number.