

EBS Process Manufacturing Financials (GMF)

No.	Views	Description
1	GMF Cost Organization Assc	This view returns information about the associations between the cost and inventory organizations. This information was supplied in the Cost Organization Associations window of the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of a legal entity, a cost organization code or name, an inventory organization code or name, and effective start and end dates.
2	GMF Cost Warehouse Assoc	This view returns information about the associations between the cost and inventory warehouses. This information was supplied in the Cost Warehouse Associations window of the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of a cost warehouse code or name and an inventory warehouse code or name.
3	GMF Item Burden Costs	This view returns information about standard burden or overhead costs for production items for a specified period. This information was supplied in the Cost Burdens (Oracle E-Business Suite 11i) or Fixed Overheads window (Oracle E-Business Suite Release 12 and later) of the Oracle Process

No.	Views	Description
		Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of an organization code or name, an item, a warehouse code or name, a calendar code, a period code, a cost method code or type code, a cost analysis code, and a resource name.
4	GMF Item Costs	This view returns information about the standard component costs for production items for a specified period. This information was supplied in the Cost Details (Oracle E-Business Suite 11i) or Item Costs (Oracle E-Business Suite Release 12 and later) window of the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of an item, a warehouse code or an organization code, a calendar code, a period code, a cost method code or cost type code, a cost level, a cost component class code, and a cost analysis code.
5	GMF Item Costs Rollup	This view returns information about the total standard costs of the production items for a specified period. The view is populated after the Cost Rollup process is run in the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of an item, a legal entity name, an organization code, a calendar code, a cost method or cost type

No.	Views	Description
		code, and a period code.
6	GMF Lot Cost Details	This view returns information about inventory costs at the lot level. This information is displayed on the Lot Cost Details window after the Lot Cost process is run in the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of an item, a lot number, a lot cost type code, a cost component class code, a cost analysis code, and a transaction run identifier.
7	GMF Overhead Percentages	This view returns information about overhead codes and percentages for cost calculations. This information is displayed on the Overhead Percentages window of the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of a legal entity, a calendar code, a period code, a cost type code, an overhead code, and an inventory organization code or name.
8	GMF Resource Costs	This view returns information about resource costs for a specified period. This information was supplied in the Resource Costs window of the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of an organization code or name, a calendar code, a period code, a resource name, a cost component class code, and a cost method code or cost type code.

No.	Views	Description
9	GMF SLA Cost Subledger	This view returns information about subledger transactions in draft and final modes. Information is returned about completed material and resource transactions that are related to Oracle Process Manufacturing Process Execution, Oracle Purchasing, Oracle Inventory, and Oracle Order Management and that are created by the costing engine for a costing method. A record is returned for each combination of a transaction number, a transaction type name, an accounting class, an accounting event line number, an item, a journal line number, and a journal line type code.
10	GMF Test Subledger	The view returns information about test updates of accounting distributions of different transactions. A record is returned for each combination of a company code, an organization code, a calendar year, and a period code.
11	GMF Update Subledger	This view returns information about accounting distributions of different transactions that are updated to the subledger. A record is returned for each combination of a company code, an organization code, a calendar year, and a period code.

No.	Views	Description
12	GMF Resource Costs	This view returns information about resource costs for a specified period. This information was supplied in the Resource Costs window of the Oracle Process Manufacturing Financials module. A record is returned for each combination of an organization code or name, a calendar code, a period code, a resource name, a cost component class code, and a cost method code or cost type code.